ANOTHER DEATH OF HYDROPHOBIA.

Lee Shepherd,a Formr Aelxandrian, Dies in Fredericksburg.

FUNERAL TOMORROW.

Alexandria-Washington Lodge, of Which He Was a Member, to Conduct Funeral at Lorton.

Another horrible death from hydrophobia, to be suffered by Alexandrians, the second to occur in the past three weeks, took place in Fredericksburg last night, when Lee Shepherd, a former resident of this city, and a member of Alexandria-Washington Lodge of Masons, succumbed to the ravages of the mysterious and dreaded disease which results from a dog bite.

Mr. Shepherd, who was employed by the R. F. & P. Railway, and who has only lived in Fredericksburg a short time was bitten by a stray dog on January 25th, when he was in the vicinity of the R. F. & P. watchman's box on Main street in Fredericksburg. He grabbed the dog by the throat and choked it to death, and then went immediately to Dr. Pratt, who cauterized the wound.

Upon the advice of Dr. Pratt, Mr. Shepherd carried the head of the dog to the hygenic laboratory, a government institution, maintained in Washington. Here the dog's head was examined and the animal was pronounced as having been afflicted with rabies.

Mr. Shepherd began taking the Pasteur treatment on January 27, and continued it for 18 days.

When he left the laboratory it was supposed that he had become innoculated against the disease, but such did not prove to be the case, for on last Friday the first symptoms of hydrophobia developed. He was removed to the Mary Washington Hospital.

Dr. J. W. Schereschewsky, who gave Mr. Shepherd the treatment at the hygenic laboratory at Washington, went to Fredericksburg Sunday and subjected Mr. Shepherd to a rigid examination, hoping there might be some means to prevent the dreaded disease from spreading through his system. The physician found Mr. Shepherd in a very bad condition, and did everything he could to relieve the unfortunate man of the pains and agony he was going through.

Monday morning Mr. Shepherd was considerably worse and the administration of morphine in large quantities seemed to have no effect, so a general anesthetic had to be given to bring even temporary relief.

His death followed at the hospital in Fredericksburg last night.

The funeral will be held tomorow morning at Lorton Station and will be under the auspices of Alexandria-Washington Lodge of Masons.

The lodge will meet at Masonic Temple tomorrow morning at 10:30 and proceed to the station in a body, where they will leave on the train which is scheduled to go at 11:17. An invitation has been extended to the members of Andrew Jackson lodge to attend.

Mr. Shepherd's death from hydrophobia is the second one to occur in this vicinity within the past three weeks. The other case was that of Raymond Struder, an 8-year-old boy, who was bitten by a bull dog and who died at the Alexandria Hospital.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Columbia, S. C., may be placed under martial law. This possibility is prescribed by an interview given by Governor Cole L. Blease yesterday afternoon in which he said: "If the Columbia police authorities don't discontinue persecuting my negro chauffeurs because they are politically unfriendly to me, I will take over the police force and institute a system of metropolitan police and declare the city under martial law. I can do this." The negro chauffeur was summoned yesterday afternoon to appear in court this morning to answer to a charge of exceeding the speed limit. Saturday he was tried in the same court for an earlier offense and fined $3.75. The Governor issued a pardon for his chauffeur, which was not respected by the chief of police. Blease then said that unless the fine be remitted he will pardon all applicants for clemency from the city court.

At least thirty persons were killed and more than a score injured yesterday in a panic which followed the discovery of fire in a small moving picture threare at Loan in the department of Aime,France. Those who were injured or killed were caught in the rush for the exits. The fire was a small one.

Election riots throughout Spain yesterday resulted in several persons being killed and a score more or less badly hurt. The returns indicate that seventy-five liberals were returned, fifty-five consevratives, eight republcans and twenty Catholics.

A terrible dynamite explosion yesterday wrecked the town of Irvine, in Ayrshire, Scotland. The number of dead is as yet unknown. It is said that the injured numbered hundreds. The explosion occurred at Nobel's Explosive Works, at Arder, 20 miles from Glasgow, For a radius of several miles it had the force of a destructive earthquake. The town of Irvine was shattered to its foundations. Many houses, churches, schools and public institutions were destroyed. Ceilings fell, partitions collapsed, and scarcely a window in the town was left intact. People walking on the streets were thrown to the ground and many seriously injured. All the inhabitants rushed from their houses in consternation. The water front and the harbor were masses of wreckage. There were three distinct explosions, followed by an immense column of smoke 2 miles high.

A Vienna dispatch to the London Express reports the drowning of 68 women by the swamping of a boat on Lake Scutari.

Plunging blindly through flames and dense clouds of smoke from nearly 100 gallons of burning oil in the furnace room, thirteen persons living in the large country residence of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel D. Waters on Blair road, Silver Spring, Md., barely escaped with their lives last night when the structure was completely destroyed by fire.

Peter Scheibler, 19 years old, shot and killed his father, Charles Scheibler, 47 years old, in their home in Chicago yesterday. The shooting occurred after the son and his sister, Helma, 15 years old, had barricaded themselves in the pantry to escape their father, who was armed with a butcher knife and was trying to force open the door. When the police rerived the boy was seated in the parlor smoking a pipe. He said he killed his parent in self-defense.

John K. Lynch, a farmer, near Ridgely, Md., was nearly killed this morning by his bull, a thoroughbred Jersey. Mr. Lynch was in the barn when the infuriated animal rushed at him, pinning him against a brick wall, breaking two ribs and otherwise injuring him internally. Lynch's 3-year-old son was the only eyewitness, and his screams attracted the mother from the house, 50 yards from the barn. She saw her husband under the bull's feet. Mrs. Lynch quickly got a pitchfork and jammed the prongs into the animal. This maddened the bull, which made another dash for Lynch who was already in a helpless condition. Mrs. Lynch again shot the fork into the animal, thereby conquering the beast.

London.—Military bands in the procession escorting the king to Parliament, played American ragtime whenever the crowds forced them to halt.

SLUMP CAUSED BY RUMORS OF WARS

Bellicose Utterances of Cologne Gazette Brings Flurry in Market.

AN INSPIRED ORGAN.

Other European Notes—Pope's Health Improves—Tables Turned on London Suffragettes.

Berlin, March 11.—The war like utences of the Cologne Gazette, an inspired organ, together with the recessions on the New York Stock Exchange today caused a slump in the Bourse. Consols began sliding at the opening. Bank stocks were off two points and Canadian Pacific dropped seven points.

Rome, March 11.—Pope Pious will be able to resume his scheduled audiences within two or three days, if no complications occur, the vatican physician said today.

The pontiff was greatly improved. Fever almost entirely had disappeared and he declared that he felt as well as usual.

Today Angelo Sarto, the Pope's brother, was on his way to the vatican to keep the pontiff company.

London, March 11.—Traffic in the streets around the headquarters of the Woman's Social and Political Union today was fairly blocked by delivery wagons and moving vans.

In the wagons were tons of coal, pianos, barrels organs, vegetables, whole cases of ginger ale, all manner of furniture, baby buggies and almost every conceivable object.

The driver of each wagon insisted on depositing his load at the suffragette headquarters and the women refused to receive the stuff.

"It finally developed the tables were turned. The suffragetes were the object of attack. Investigation showed that the anti-suffragettes had ordered the merchandise as a joke on the militants. The merchants, though, did not see the humor of the situation, and vowed to get even with somebody, no matter who.

Four of the militant suffragetes who tried to throw a petition for "votes for women" into the royal coach as King George and Queen Mary passed the Mall were today sent to prison for three weeks and the fourth, who actually threw the roll of paper, was given a four weeks' sentence.

The women were tried in Bow street court, and a large crowd surrounded the place. The women protested that they meant no insult to the king, and that they acted within their constitutional rights when they tried to present a petition to him.

The magistrate offered them their liberty if they would promise good behavior. They declined to take the pledge and were led off to the prison, declaring they would go on a hunger strike.

DARKEY WEDDING A SUCCESS.

The ladies of the Maccabees last night at the Young People's Building presented a burlesque darkey wedding, that was both amusing and novel to the audience that filed the building. The large assemblage seemed delighted with the merriment and vivacity of the large company of amatures who permitted no lags between the laughs. The costumes peculiar to the sixties before the war, the woman in hoop skirts and the men in sombre broad cloth and beavers hats gave a quaint atmosphere to the scenes. The farce was some what short yet the good acting and costumery made up for what was lacking.

Miss Connor, of Norfolk, trained the company and directed the affair. Miss England, State Commander of the order, was a visitor and has been in the city for the past two weeks.

Yonkers, N. Y.—Learning that his life long friend from whom he had become estranged was about to die, James Lynch gave up a quart of his blood and saved Thomas Morris, Jr.

SAD TRAGEDY RECALLED.

William Firth, Jr., Released From Pennsylvania Prison on Parole.

The tragic suicide of Ethel Pierce, a beautiful young girl 14 years old, in Alexandria, on September 13th, 1910, is brought to mind by a telegram received here today announcing that William Firth, who brought the girl to Alexandria had bene released on parole. The man and the girl were from Chester, Pa., where Firth was employed as a ticket agent. Although married and the father of a family he left home with the girl and came to Alexandria. They were located here, andria when the police attempted to enter the room to arrest Firth, the girl shot herself with a revolver, dying shortly afterwards.

Firth was tried in December, 1910 on three charges, and was sentenced to the penitentiary for five years. During the trial he refused the services of a lawyer and plead his own case. Chief Goods went from here to Chester as a witness.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

Well-Attended Last Nght—Several Subjects Discussed.

The regular monthly meeting of the Chamber of Commerce was held last night. There was a large gathering of people representing the business interests of the city.

Among the subjects discussed was telephone rates and service in this city and surrounding country.

The committee recently appointed to make inquiries concerning the purposed roadway from the Highway Bridge to Arlington submitted their report which was satisfactory in every detail. As is known, the route of the road is to be through the government's experimental farm, and it met with some opposition at first from the authorities, as it was alleged, it would divide that tract. The committee obtained assurances from Representative Carlin to the effect that the building of the road is assured, as all the objections which had been urged have been met and eliminated.

The respective committees of the chamber have a number of inquiries in hand from people from a distance whose attention has been attracted to this city as a suitable place to local enterprises.

RIVER NOTES.

The Chesapeake and Potomac Steamboat Company announces that the 1912 schedule of their steamers will be resumed next week. The steamer Wakefield will make three trips a week and the Capital City will resume her old schedule.

A heavy fog hung over the river last night an dthis morning. The steamer Northland, due at this port from Norfolf at 6 o'clock, did not reach her wharf until about ten o'clock having been compelled to anchor on account of the thick weather.

WOMEN IN CRITTENTON HOME.

Ella Ashby, May Evans, Florence Williams and Elizabeth Frederick, the young women who are witnesses in the case of Minnie Smith, charged with violating the white save law, were liberated by Commissioner Garnett on bail, to appear before the United States District Court. The terms of the release provide that the women enter the Crittenton Home in Washington. They are now in that institution.

AUTOMOBILISTS FINED.

Four Alexandrians Arraigned in Alexandria County Charged With Exceeding Speed Limit.

C. B. Swan, Charles Blendheim and R. M. Pettit were brought before Justice Heisley at Del Ray, Alexandria county yesterday to answer the charge of exceeding the speed limit in automobiles. The two first-named were fined $10 and costs and the two last-named was declared not guilty.

The evidence showed tht the justice had acted as informer and trial judge, that he had timed the autoists and measured the ground over which they passed in a given time.

Counsel for the Alexandrians took exceptions to this procedure, and alleged that the case should have come before the Mayor of Potomac.

The justice overruled the exceptions and imposed fines as stated above. An appeal was noted from the judgment of the court.

MINIMUM WAGE FOR WOMEN AND GIRLS

Shower of Appeals Sent to New Administration for Redress.

NATION IS AROUSED.

Will be Serious Problem Before Congress When The Two Houses Meet Next December.

Washington, March 11.—From every section of the country there are pouring in today on the new administration and senators and congressmen, appeals that they take up the question of a minimum wage for women and girls as soon as possible. The revelations in the Chicago probe, which are paralleled in every community in the nation, have stirred the people to an extent seldom before reached and there is little doubt that the problem will be really a serious one when the regular session of Congress opens in December next.

There is hardly a community in the nation where investigations are not now in progress. The fact that the majority of the big business men in Chicago have insisted that national and not state legislation will be required to solve the problem brings the subject home to the national legislators. But the introduction of any general bill framed along the line suggested from Chicago, would immediately precipitate the doctrine of violation of states rights, and this point, it is believed, will furnish a decidedly ticklish situation that will require diplomacy to solve without embarrassment.

It was certain today from dispatches received from nearly every section of the country that the entire nation has been aroused.

Strikers Return to Work.

Trenton, N. J., March 11.—It was announced at the headquarters of the Amboy Division of the Pennsylvania Railroad this morning that out of 225 striking section hands 17 returned to work today. The officials say they have received no formal demand from the strikers and believe the trouble will be settled shortly. The strikers, on the other hand claim their men are firm in their requestfor a nine-hour day and $2 wage schedule. The Camden City and Railroad police force has been increased to meet an emergency although no serious trouble has been reported.

Royalty Boycotted.

Stockholm, March 11.—A boycott against royal society has been established by the Swedish workingmen's Association because two members of the Social Democratic Council who attended a supper at Stockholm Castle, the Royal residence, were severely censured in resolutions passed by the organization. It was formally resolved that in future all members of the association must decline such invitations or withdraw from the body.

Confederate Money at Par.

Mrs. Joseph Zimmerman, of Washington, accepted a $10 Confederate note in payment for room rent from a stranger yesterday, and later failed to induce officials at the Treasury Department to give her $10 in gold for the paper. After the stranger selected a room which pleased him, a rental of $4 a week, he gave Mrs. Zimmerman the $10 Confederate bill, explaining that the paper was worth face value now that President Wilson is in the White House. Mrs. Zimmerman gave the stranger $6 in real money. She grew much excited when Treasury officials told her that Confederate money is worth little except as a curio, and later asked the police of the second precinct to locate the stranger who swindled her.

ALLEGED INSULTS TO SUFFRAGETTES

Gross Conduct of Rowdies in The Presence of Washington Police.

REPORTS CONFLICT.

Marchers Told That They Would Have Escaped Rough Treatment If They Had Remained at Home.

Washington, March 11.—Responsibility for disorder during the suffragette parade on March 3 cannot be accurately fixed Commissioner Johnson, of the District of Columbia, told the Senate investigating committee today. He defended the conduct of Chief of Police Sylvester and the officers, stating that the failure of the police to keep order was unexplainable.

"Sylvester is the best police chief in the United States to handle crowds," Commissioner Johnson asserted, "and there was perfect arrangement for the protection of the paraders and the public."

Johnson said that the troop of cavalry to assist the police was recommended by Sylvester and the District Commissioners, but was refused by Secretary of War Stimson.

Washington, March 11.—How an elderly woman marcher in the suffrage parade was insulted by a drunken hoodlum who spat tobacco in her face, and how a policeman in uniform stood by and refused to interfere, is sworn testimony by Miss Partricia Street, assistant director of the pageant, presented to the Senate committee investigating the affair. Her statement is in sharp contrast to the written reports of police captains that "We and the men under our command sa wno disorder nor heard of any insult along the line of march."

"I went all the way ahead of my section in my car, to the Treasury space," said Mrs. Street. 'A white man tore my coat. I saw a man spit in a woman's face. A policeman stood right near me and saw it. He made no attempt to arrest the man.

"I was on the running board of my car with a megaphone, trying to clear the place, calling on the people and asking if they would not stand aside, and when this happened to this woman—an elderly woman—I went back and forward, got off the car, went back as far as I could and said to the policeman, "Won't you kindly protect these people here? The people are crowding in on them.

"Then this woman put her hand out and brushed back this drunken German man, and as she did so, he had some tobacco juice in his mouth, and he spat it on her forehead and it ran down her face.

"I asked the policeman if he would not protect this woman, and he said 'There would be nothing like this if you would stay at home.'

"I was very indignant and excited, that the policeman would do such a thing. I struck the German; I would have hit the policeman if I could. The policeman took hold of my coat and tore it, and told me to go home where I belonged. The policeman was in uniform.'"

MEETING OF COUNCIL.

City Fathers Will Convene Again Tonight—Lull in Street Work.

The regular meeting of the City Council will be held tonight. The various committees have many papers in hand, but most of those relating to proposed street improvements will probably be allowed to repose for a time, at least, or until the city can see its way clear to accomplishing the plans which have been mapped out.

At the last meeting the two boards acted upon certain measures which will result in adding several more improved squares to the city in the near future. Other work is contemplated and it will be prosecuted as soon as possible.

The work of improving Royal street from Prince to Wilkes will probably be the first improvement this spring.

Ordinances were passed last year for the improvement of Fairfax street from Duke to Wilkes. The work of laying the sewer on these squares has been finished, and as soon as the property owners shall have signed the agreement with the city the work of laying the vitrified brick roadway and granolithic sidewalks on those squares will be commenced.

Negro Makes a Desperate Effort to Escape From Detective.

Richmond, Va., March 11.—With both hands linked together in steel cuffs, Nathan Harris, colored, who was being brought a prisoner from Norfolk to Richmond by Detective Gentry dived from the stern of the steamship Virginia at Newport News Sunday afternoon, and was rescued only after dozens of chairs, life preservers and lines had been thrown to him.

The stern of the boat was filled with women who became frantic when they saw the negro fling himself overboard and become caught in the swirl of the propellers. They screamed and shrieked in their terror, and the sound of "man overboard" was echoed by nearly everybody on the ship. Detective Gentry, who had turned but a second from his prisoner, was caught in the jam of struggling, shrieking women, and was unable to get to the rail.

The ship pulled rapidly away from the drowning man, and it was at least forty feet distant when the detective yelled to him, "keep yourself up, and somebody will save you." Captain William Warren, who was on the bridge at the time, was busy docking his ship, but turned to throw a life preserver to Harris. It fell near the struggling negro but he could not swim with his hands cuffed together, and was unable to reach it. Other life preservers and dozens of chairs were flung over the rails, but all of them fell short.

In the ensuing melee Detective Gentry called to a policeman who was standing on the dock and asked him to help save the man. But some one on board a tug, which was lying nearby, managed to throw a line to Harris, and it fell between the negro's hands. He caught a death like grip on it and was hauled aboard.

Harris was arrested Saturday in Norfolk at the request of the Richmond authorities, who wanted him on a warrant charging him with stealing a quantity of silverware from Gresham Court, where Harris was employed by J. P. Martin.

TO DESTROY ALL CEDAR TREES.

Carry on Campaign in Lower Shenandoah Valley.

Winchester, Va., Mrch 11.—The fruit growers of Winchester and Frederick county held a monster meeting here a few days ago and heard reports from various district clubs, or committees, recently appointed for the purpose of urging farmers and others to cut down and destroy all the cedar trees on their premises, or within a radius of two miles from an apple orchard. The reports indicated that the cedar cutting campaign is spreading, although some county residents have been loathe to part with their trees, they are gradually becoming interested in the development of the apple industry in Frederick county, and it is expected that those who have been a little slow will now permit their cedar trees to be destroyed. Prof. W. B. Waite, of the United States Agricultural Department, addressed the meeting, and he declared that the complete destruction of the cedars, root and all, was the only safe and sure method to be employed in stamping out cedar rust, which has attacked practically every York Imperial apple orchard in the lower Shenandoah Valley.

Forest Fires.

Luray, Va. March 11.—Destructive forest fires have been raging in this county for several days, destroying thousands of cords of bark and timber and entailing heavy loss on the fruit growing farms in the Blue Ridge.

The government reservations in the Massanutten Mountains of this county are being closely guarded to prevent the fires from reaching them. The officials in charge the fire stations are constantly on guard.

UPHOLDS GOVERNOR MANN.

Misdirected Sympathy in the Allen Case Says Dr. Young.

Richmond, Va., March 11.—Misdirected sympathy, violent criticism of Governor Mann for his refusal to commute the sentences of the Allens, the existence of the saloons, ignorance in certain isolated mountain sections and "districts" of shame, the causes of crime, were the targets for the censure of Dr. W. J. Young, of Centenary Church, Sunday night, in a sermon on justice, in which he declared that as painful as it would be he would have done as Governor Mann did.

"God pity us,' he said in closing, "that we are weeping and shrieking over this great tragedy of the execution of these two men when we have never touched with out finger tips the cause of it all."

Dr. Young said in opening that he did not intend to go into the loyal aspects of the case. The evidence to his mind showed that the men had received a fair trial, twice the Supreme Court of the State had said that the law had been fully complied with and the governor had gone into the case thoroughly. Knowing what he did of the case and feeling it his duty to accept the conclusion of the jury and the trial judge who had given a fair trial and the conclusion of experts in the law he declared that while he had as much sympathy for the unfortunate men as ony one and while it would pain him more than anything else his conscientious regard for the obligations he owed to the Commonwealth would cause him to refuse commutation, were he in the governor's place. He had no criticism to make of those whose sympathies with the Allens had led them to ask commutation, except those who had impugned the motives of those who were qually as huamn, equally as sympathetic and equally as regardful for the good of the state as they.

The pastor lamented that this sympathy could not be harnessed and turned into other channels. The slums of the city, the saloons, the restricted district, the ignorance of isolated communities are permitted to exist by us, he said, and our sympathies should rather be for those who inhabit them and are going down to crime than for the men who have written their own doom.

"They call the execution of these men a great tragedy," he said. "It is a tragedy, but it is the tragedy such as that told of in the words above the temple, 'O, Israel, thou hast destroyed thyself.' Lives wrecked by drink, diseased bodies, human frames worn away by the drug habit, the crimes committeed by victims of evil passion are tragedies. We have too much sympathy for the results of crime and not enough condemnation of crime."

That there is too much criticism of the courts, was the declaration of the pastor. The courts make mistakes, he said, but when judges are unfit they should be removed. The court and the church are the safeguards of society and should be upheld. He spoke of the charge made by the editor of a newspaper that a judge had rendered a decision in the Vanderbilt case because he thought it best for himself "The man who writes such an article as this, if he has any manhood, would retract or push his charges to a conclusion and throw the judge off the bench." Colonel Roosevelt, he thought, "has blundered" several times in this respect.

Dr. Young said that he had preached the sermon because he felt that what he had to say should be said. He had not done so before, because he would not take it upon himself to attempt to influence the governor in reaching a decision.

REFUSES FIFTH RESPITE.

Governor Will Take no Further Action in Allen Case.

Richmond, March 11.—Governor Mann yesterday afternoon again declined to further interfere in the fate of Floyd or Claude Allen when he was petitioned to grant a fifth respite to the doomed men by attorneys R. H Willis, of Roanoke, and D. C. O'Flaherty, of Richmond. The two attorneys in question waited upon the executive at his offices in the state capitol building and were received.

It was stated to Governor Mann that, inasmuch as the prosecution of Dexter Goad and certain revenue officers who figured s witnesses in the Allen trials at Wytheville had been definitely determined upon, and that charges of perjury would be preferred against these men, the executive might see fit to grant a respite to Floyd and Clude until such a time as the charges against Goad had been threshed out before a grand jury.

The Governor declined to take further action.

While Governor Mann is not authority for the attement, it is yet known to be a fact that the executive reached his conclusions in the Allen cases irrespective of the testimony of Dexter Goad whose evidence did not influence him in the smallest degree.

Should all of the testimony given by Goad be eliminated from the trial proceeding, Governor Mann would yet be of the opinion that Floyd and Claude Allen should die. It is not probable that the governor will make any further statement in the proceedings, although it is known that he is fortified with documentary evidence bearing on the probable guilt and desperate character of the Carroll county outlaws which has not as yet been made public. It is believed that the Governor will not again grant a reprieve, although it is said that the sympathizers have not as yet abandoned all hope.

The hitherto inflexible spirit of Floyd Allen is said to have suffered greviously from the shock of the Governor's refusal to grant commutation of sentence to either himself or his son. So much is this true that it's said at the penitentiry that Floyd completely gave way to a nervous breakdown subsequent to the last action of Governor Mann.

Claude Allen is said to be bearing up with much forttude. He is reported to be in a more or less dazed condition. The terrible fate which daily draws nearer and nearer to the younger clansmen is said to have bewildered him. It is something which he appears utterly unable to accept as true. It appears beyod his power to understand that he is to die.

Floyd Allen is a man of more years and of more experience. He has looked death in the face on more than one occasion. The horrible suspense to which he has recently been subjected, however, coupled with the long and unbroken chain of reverses which has, link by link, been forged around him, has bowed his spirit into the dust and he is said to be a broken man.

AN OFT-REPEATED REQUEST OF PAPERS.

Every newspaper is familiar with the request, "Please do not publish anything about it." Sometimes it is made in the form of a demand and accompanied by threats of dire results if acquiesence does not follow.

There are a few things, the public ought to keep in mind in the matter of a newspaper's relation to the printing of news.

In the first place, a newspaper owes an obigation to its whole circle of readers to print a fair, comprehensive report of the day's happenings. It cannot overlook this responsiblity merely to please individuals. That policy involved an injustice to the many and favoritism to the few. Who shall be favored?

Much of the news that is printed unfortunately occasions annoyance and often heartache to somebody. That is an unavoidable incident of the newspaper business. Is there justification for shielding from such consequences the man or woman who has influence, socially or in business, while the many who lack it must be treated without such consideration?

Persons who wish to escape publicity should be careful not to make news, or should count the cost of advertisement to the world as part of the price they must pay for what they have determined upon doing.

There are certain easily-defined zones of publicity. The individual who steps into any of these may count upon getting his name in the newspapers. One is the courts, civil and criminal. The man who goes to law invites advertisement. Yet many men —and sometimes women—appeal to a newspaper to suppress reports of legal proceedings in order that they may be saved annoyance. The time to consider immunity is before resort to law.

Departure from the conventionalities of life is another means of entering the publicity zone. Conduct that is off the beaten trail affords news. Those who defy social observances or tread upon established institutions must not expect to escape print, and should not task to be saved from such notoriety.

Further, much injustice may be done by the suppression of news. The tongue of gossip, uninformed of the real facts, can do a hundred times more injury to the innocent than publication of the truth will do to those actually invoved. Often a newspaper is shielding the reputation of a score from the scandal of suspicion when it is telling the truth about one who has incurred the liability to censure.

A newspaper, with a sense of responsibility, will exercise a certain discrimination. There may be times and circumstances that justify suppression. Some happenings may in the reporting of them serve no proper end. Of two things the responsible newspaper will be jealously careful—the good name of a woman and the reputation of a financial institution: both are of that delicacy to be easily hurt the good name of a woman's is treasured beyond price and a cloud cast up on the reputation of a bank or trust company may cause loss to thousand who are dependent upon its solvency.

But this lesson the public should learn—the way to avoid publicity, is to avoid departure from the beaten track; and let this be added to it—if you have diverged into the danger zone the way to obtain considerate treatment is to assume that you are a subject for news, and to take the newspapers into your confidence frankly and fully.

Such confidence is rarely abused and assuredly never by any newspaper that makes profession of decency or has regard for ethics.

DRY ADMINISTRATION.

All Intoxicants to be Banished From White House Functions and Others.

The Wilson administration will be "dry." This expression is used entirely in a sense that appeals to the inner man of the nation and not necessarily for those who look for the stereotyped methods of government.

It has become known that President Wilson and all of his family are averse to the use of liquor in any form. Intoxicants will have no place in the White House during the next four years unless the President's views undergo a sharp change.

The premier in the President's cabinet, Secretary of State Bryan, as is well known, has been a prohobition advocate for many years. On one occasion Mr. Bryan would have made the question a national issue, and it was due to his effort that the prohibition legislation in Nebraska was put into effect.

It is a mater of common knowledge that Speaker Clark is a teetotaler and has been for many years. The fact that a large portion of the Democratic majority in the Senate and House is from the South, where prohibition is general makes it certain that there will be less official drinking that has been known in Washington for many years.

So dry a prospect in the White House then at present has not learned up since the days of President Hayes. when Mrs. Hayes excluded wines and liquors from the executive mansion immediately on becoming its mistress The sideboard on which the wineglasses and decanters of that administration once more were displayed now graces a bar room in Washington.

Supreme Court Proceedings.

The following business was transacted in the Supreme Court of Appeals yesterday:

Huff, executor vs. Welch. Argued by Hiden & Thurlow, for the appellant and by Burnett Miller and J. A. C. Keith for the appellee, and submitted.

Lambert vs Barrett. Argued by J K. M. Norton for the appellant and by C.E. Nicol for the appellee, and submitted.

Denial From Madero's Family.

New York, March 10.—Positive and indignant denial was made today on behalf of former President Madero's family that his death in Mexico City was due to the fact that Senora Madero, his wife, had organized a rescue party which tried to take him from the guard of rurales enroute from the palace to the penitentiary. The charge was made by the Minister of War in Mexico City yesterday. When it was brought to the attention of the members of the Madero family now in this city, Rafael Hernandez, minister of the Interior, under Madero, was authorized to reply.

"Such an accusation is absolutely false," said Hernandez. "It is hard to believe that any such accusation would be made by the Huerta government. It seems that they would accuse the widow of the man they murdered with having instigated his death.

HURT BY FALLING MASTS.

Captain Porter Has Two Ribs Broken And Wrist Sprained During Storm.

Norfolk, March 11.—With three of his ribs broken nad right wrist sprained as the result of being caught under the masts of the schooner Sada which fell during the gale last week while the vessel was off Wachapreague, Captain W. J. Porter, is in a painful operation at St. Vincent's Hospital.

Captain Porter stated that the two masts on the schooner, which was a small craft, fell during a blow. He said the foretopmast was the first to fall, and in coming down caught the mainmast and tore it down, catching him under the wreckage. He was extricated in an unconscious state, and upon being revived signaled for aid.

SMILES.

By The Second Ward Bard.

THE HILLS OF PIEDMONT.

From the hills of Piedmont a soft, tempting voice is calling to me, today,
And it seems like I can't just resist it, for it's urging my spirit away
To the country where all my soul's longing has been to return to the days
When I saw the sun rise o'er the hillsides and lift through the morning's soft haze.

Then a thousand sweet memories rush o'er me, and it seems just as if I can see
The bright plumaged birds in the morning, and hear their shrill notes calling me,
And the hollow where, oft in the summer, I've heard the dull hum of the bees,
And the woodland through which I have rambled, 'mongst the pine and towering oak trees.

The school house that cosily nestles in the grove by the old country pike,
Must look just the same in the evenings, when the lengthening dark shadows strike
Cross the far-rolling hills of Piedmont, that are always so close in my dreams,
And I love them because they're a comfort when I failed in my gold-getting schemes.

And I picture the green hills of Piedmont as a haven of plenty and rest,
And a land where the folks are light-hearted, and a country of song and of jest,
And some day I'm going to go back there, where I'll live so I'll feel like the day
Is full of the perfume of flowers, and the spirit and beauty of May.

The new nickels, just out,, seem to have aroused a general dissatisfaction among those who haven't got many of them.

We have already signed for petitions for applicants for the postmastership. If our John Hancock would look well on your petitions, gentlemen, apply to us promptly, as we'll doubtless be busy signing them from now on.

There's a gentleman named Robinson,
An official that's second to none
He's our treasurer, you see,
And is likely to be,
For to beat him will sure be no fun.

Preparing For Massacre.

The massacre of the entire population of the Turkish fortress of Scutari is proable when the city falls, according to a traveler, who writes to the Manchester (Eng). Guardian. The newspaper gives prominence to the letter, saying that the writer has had every opportunity to know the temper of the Montenegrin and Servian besiegers. It appeals to Sir Edward Grey, the British Foreign Secretary, and to the European powers to take steps to avert such a massacre. The writer says that Servian officers at the port of Durazzo boasted to him that they exterminated the Moslem Albanian Tribe of Lyuma. He continues: "Later a Montenegrin official assured me very earnestly, "We have completely exterminated the Ruyova tribes. When we had overpowered them we made them all pass under the sword. I assure you that not one of the tribe remain.' The Montenegrins reasoned that the tribesmen were animals—savage beasts." The leading Belgrade newspaper is quoted by the writer recommending that no quarter be given to the civilian inhabitants of Scutari and that the town be leveled to the ground.

Girl Captures Negro Outlaw.

Richmond, Va., March 11.—Miss Anne Norvell, of Charlotte courthouse, Va., has received a check from Governor Mann for $10. The check is a reward for her capture of Eli Morton, the negro who shot an officer in that county a few weeks ago. While the man-hunt was on, Miss Norvell observed the negro near her home, and, pretending to sympathize with him, she offered him a meal and while he was partaking of the same she notified the officers, who overpowered Morton without difficulty. The check was forwarded yesterday and wil be paid out of the state's reward fund of which the Governor is custodian.

The intention is to have one at the port of Norfolk, which may be located in a position to be seen from Newport News and shipping in Hampton Roads.

Allenists yesterday examined the first "crank" of the Wilson administration. The man gave his name as Dr. Charles A. Schwab, of Dallas, Texas. He is being detained in the Washington asyium, in which institution he was placed Tuesday when arrested by Secret Service men on his arrival in Washington. The man said he was on his way to the White house to be sworn in as President and he had in his possession a number of written messages purporting to have been sent to him by Chief Justice White, of the Supreme Court. It is believed that he wrote them himself.

Salves Can't Cure Eczema

In regard to skin diseases, medical authorities are now agreed on this:

Don't imprison the disease germs in your skin by the use of greasy salves, and thus encourage them to multiply.

A true cure of all eczematous diseases can be brought about only by using the healing agents in the form of a liquid.

WASH THE GERMS OUT.

A simple wash: A compound of Oil of Wintergreen, Thymol, and other ingredients as combined in the D.D.D. Prescription. This penetrates to the disease germs and destroys them, then soothes and heals the skin as nothing else has ever done.

A 50 cent bottle will start the cure and give you instant relief.

We have made fast friends of more than one family by recommending this D.D.D. Prescription to a skin sufferer here and there, and we want you to try it now on our positive pay guarantee. D.D.D. Soap keeps the pores clean; ask us.

"My Guests Are Coming Tomorrow!"

When expecting guests, the housewife often finds it necessary to call upon the local dealers for quick service. A window-shade breaks, or a new rug is needed—perhaps the piano needs tuning—or something special in the way of food supplies may be wanted. It's handy to step to the telephone and order what is needed. Telephone orders always receive prompt attention.

Have you a Bell Telephone in your home? It costs so little and is so convenient.

A WARNING.

To Whom it May Concern:

It having been called to our attention that there is an Order, the members and councils of which are endeavoring to leave the impression, or prospective candidates, and the public that they are a branch or auxiliary of the Junior Order United American Mechanics, of Virginia, Inc., we feel that we should make a brief statement of the status of our Order.

On February 17, 1900, the General Assembly of Virginia granted our Order a charter to do business in this State. At the time there was doing business in Virginia the National Council, Junior Order United American Mechanics.

On the 29th day of June, 1901, our branch of the Order brought suit in the Chancery Court of the City of Richmond to prohibit the National branch from using our name, or any name of like import, and from using a seal with the name of Jr. U. A. M. on it, and from carrying out the objects for which we were organized.

On the 21st day of July, 1904, the Chancery Court decided that our Order was the only branch authorized to do business in Virginia, and in it decree the following language is used:

"And the Court doth further adjudge, order and decree that the said National Council of Junior Order United American Mechanics of the United States of North America, and the other defendants to the said bill * * * * * * * be and they are hereby, jointly and severally, perpetually enjoined and restrained from continuing the use within the State of Virginia of the name of the State Council of Virginia, Junior Order United American Mechanics of the State of Virginia, or any other name of like import likely to taken for that of plaintiff; and from the use of the seal of said plaintiff within the State of Virginia; and from carrying out, within the State of Virginia, under the name of the plaintiff, or any name of like import, any of the objects for which the said National Council of the Junior Order of United American Mechanics of the United States of North America, or the said voluntary Association organized on or about the 2nd of March, 1901, as aforesaid were organized; and from using within the State of Virginia the name of the said plaintiff or any other name of like import in the pursuit of the objects for which the said plaintiff was chartered * * * * * * * and that the said National Council of the Junior Order of United American Mechanics of the United States of North America, and the said voluntary association organized on or about March 2nd, 1901, as aforesaid, and their agents and officers be, and they are hereby, perpetually enjoined and restrained from designating their officers within the State of Virginia by the appelations set forth in the bill used by the plaintiff for its officers or agents, and from continuing the use in the State of Virginia of said appellations."

The National branch of the Order felt itself aggrieved by the decree above quoted from, and the case was appealed to the Supreme Court of Virginia, and then to the highest court in the land—the Supreme Court of the United States, and was in both of these latter courts decided in favor of our branch of the Order.

The National Branch of the Order then applied to the State Corporation Commission for a charter and on the 29th day of December, 1906, the same was granted to it as the "Virginia Branch of the Junior Order United Americans"?

Our branch of the Order considering that this was violation of injunction granted by the Chancery Court, petitioned said court to summon the said officers of the National Branch before it to show cause why they should not be fined for contempt of court.

This the said Court did, and on the 8th day of May, 1907 entered its decree as follows:

"And the matter of the said rule having been fully argued by counsel, and maturely considered by the Court, the Court doth adjudge, order and decree that the respondents to said petition * * * and each of them have disregarded and disobeyed the decree of this court, entered on the 21st day of July, 1904, which has been heretofore affirmed by the decree of the Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia and by the Supreme Court of the United States, in the following respects, viz: In disobeying the requirements of the act of the General Assembly of Virginia, passed on February 17th, 1900 * * * * * * and in disobeying so much of said decree as enjoined the carrying out within the State of Virginia under the name of the plaintiff, or any other name of like import, any of the objects for which the National Council of the Junior Order of United American Mechanics of the United States of North America, or the said voluntary association, were organized; or in using in Virginia the name of the plaintiff, or any other name of like import, in the pursuit of the objects for which the said plaintiff was chartered * * * * * and in disobeying so much of said decree as prohibited the National Council and the said voluntary association, their agents and officers, from designating their officers in the State of Virginia by the appellations set forth in the plaintiff's bill for its officers and agents, and continuing the use in the State of Virginia of said appellations.

And the Court, desiring to compel obedience to said decree, doth adjudge, order and decree that that persons above named be and they are, fined the sum of twenty-five dollars each, and the same shall be paid by them, respectively, to the clerk of this court within 30 days from this date, and in default of such payment, each of said persons shall stand committed to the custody of the sheriff of this city to remain in jail until said sums be paid by them respectively."

This case was also appealed to the Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia, and the Supreme Court of the United States, but was affirmed by these Courts.

It will be seen from the above quotations from the court's decision that the officers aid members of any Order which has our name, or any name of like import, and which undertakes to carry out the objects or our Order, or which interferes with our Order in carrying out its objects, or which uses the seal of our Order, is in contempt of court.

It is not our desire to resort to the Courts, but we feel that it is an obligation which we owe to our members, to see that the injunction order of the Chancery Court of the City of Richmond is not violated.

The foregoing is published as a warning to the general public.

E. B. WHARTON,
State Councilor.

Successor to Duke of Connaught.

London, March 11.—As a successor to the Duke of Conaught, for governor general of Canada, a small but powerful group is urging the Duke of Teck, brother of Queen Mary, it was learned today. The cabinet's choice is Earl Beauchamp, once governor general of Australia.

It is said in court circles that King George is not very fond of his brother-in-law, and the Duke of Teck is not popular with the British public, but the King, to keep peace in the family, might give his relative an appointment that would take him away from London for several years.

The Duke of Connaught, who is the King's uncle, wants to leave Canada because the climate there does not agree with the duchess.

Application For Pardon.

Newark, N. J., March 11.—Allison M. McFarland, once convicted of wife murder and sentenced to death, and who, on a second trial last October, was found not guilty, and who is now serving an eighteen months' sentence in the federal prison at Atlanta for counterfeiting, has made application to the Board of Pardons connected with the prison for a parcon.

McFarland made this known in a letter to Frank McDermot, his counsel in the murder trial. In this commutation McFarland states that he hopes to be pardoned May 7, when he shall have served six months of his sentence and says he has a proposition to go into business in Buffalo.

Record Height.

Paris, March 11.—Aviator Perreyon, in a monoplane, ascedted to a height of 19,800 feet this afternoon at the Buc aerodrome, establishing a new world's altitude record.

New York.—Charlie Martine, Hampton, Va., of a full-blooded Indian, expressed wonder at the "squaws of Broadway who tie blankets tightly around their feet and hitch themselves to poodles."

THE TEST THAT TELLS.

Is The Test of Time. Many Alexandria People Have Made This Tet.

Years ago this Alexandria citizen told in a public statement the benefit derived from Doan's Kidney Pills.

The statement is now confirmed—the testimony complete. Instances like this are numerous. They doubly prove the merit of Doan's Kidney Pills. Can any Alexandria reader demand more convincing proof? It's Alexandria testimony—it may be investigated.

Mrs. Anine Scott, 110 Prince street, strong friend to Doan's Kidney Pills Alexandria, Va., says: "I am the same today, as I was in 1910 when I publicly told of the cure they had made for me. This cure has been lasting, but I occasionally use Doan's Kidney Pills as a preventive. I had pains in my back and I could not rest well. In the morning I always felt tired and worn out, and I also had dizzy spells. Doan's Kidney Pills did such good world that it is a pleasure to recommend them to other kidney sufferers."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's and take no other. 2

THIS LADY'S GOOD APPETITE

Mrs. Hansen, In a Letter From Mobile, Tells How She Gained It.

Mobile, Ala.—"I suffered for seven years, with womanly trouble," writes Mrs. Sigurd Hansen in a letter from this city. "I felt weak and always had a headache and was always going to the doctor. At last I was operated on, and felt better, but soon I had the same trouble.

My husband asked me to try Cardui. I felt better after the first bottle, and now, I have a good appetite and sleep well. I feel fine, and the doctor tells me I am looking better than he ever saw me."

If you are sick and miserable, and suffer from any of the pains due to womanly trouble—try Cardui.

Cardui is successful because it is composed of ingredients that have been found to act curatively on the womanly constitution.

For more than fifty years, it has been used by women of all ages, with great success. Try it. Your druggist sells it.

Tuberculosis Medicine Saved This Man's Life

Pneumonia is a serious disease, and often lays the foundation for chronic lung trouble—sometimes Tuberculosis results. After Pneumonia, or any serious or stubborn cold, it is wise to take Eckman's Alterative. Don't wait to find out whether the trouble is getting worse, but take Eckman's Alterative in time and avoid the dangers of disease. Read of the recovery in this case:

336 No. 41st St., Phila. Pa.

"Gentlemen: I am getting along very nicely and gaining strength all the time. I now weigh 154 pounds, a gain since September 16, 1907, of 28 pounds more than when I first started to take the Alterative. I wish I had known of it two years ago, as it would have saved me much misery and distress. I was suffering from a very serious abscessed lung, which followed a bad attack of pneumonia. My physician and a specialist declared my case hopeless. I cannot but be thankful to you and the Almighty God for the great blessing and change of health it has brought me."

(Sworn Affidavit) THOS. REILLY.

(Five years later, reports good health.)

Eckman's Alterative is effective in Bronchitis, Asthma, Hay Fever, Throat and Lung Troubles, and in upbuilding the system. Does not contain poisons, opiates or habit-forming drugs. Ask for booklet telling of recoveries, and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for more evidence. For sale by all leading druggists.

HUDSON'S PHARMACY.

Child Badly Burned.

Baltimore, March 11.—Sarah Bell, five years old, of Northumberland count, Va., is a patient at Franklin Square Hospital, suffering from burns received while trying to extinguish a fire in some grass near her home. She arrived yesterday morning and the physicians say her condition is critical. On Sunday a fire broke out in the grass in front of the child's home and Sarah attempted to put it out. While doing so her dress caught fire and in a moment she was enveloped in fimes. Her screams attracted the attention of several men who were near by and they attempted to extinguish the blaze. Before they were able to do so, however, the child was severely burned about the limbs, and on the advice of a physician it was decided to send her to a hospital in this city.

NEGRO SHOOTS FARMER.

Ellis Coker Receives Ball Through Legs After Foiling Highwayman.

Richmond, March 11.—Refusing to submit to his pockets being rifled, Ellis Coker, a Chesterfield county farmer, whose place is near Bethlehem Church, was shot through both legs by a negro highwayman early Sunday morning on the Midlothian turnpike in Swansboro while on his way home in a wagon.

Coker was only a short distance from the residence of Dr. J. . Loving when a negro emerged from the bushes and grasped his horse's bridle. Having brought the wagon to a stop the negro jumped up into the wagon, and called out to the driver to hold up his hands.

Drawing a large knife from his pocket Coker made several lunges at the negro, the last time, inflicting a gash in the highwayman's throat. Surprised at this warm reception the negro jumped from the wagon and fired, the ball penetrating the muscles of both legs. He then made his escape.

The shot awakened nearby residents, and the wounded man was taken to a residence where he later received surgical aid.

To Be Tried For Murder.

Benjamin T. Davis will be tried at Salisbury, Md., this week for the murder of Mrs. Lambert Rayne, bride of Lambert Rayne, at Powellsville, on November 8. It was claimed that Davis murdered Mrs. Rayne and then set fire to the house in an effort to hide the crime. State's Attorney Bell, it is said has a number of startling facts that will be made public at this term of court.

Davis has refused to make any statement other than to deny the crime, but there is a chain of circumstantial evidence against him that will be very hard to break. Davis had been friendly with Mrs. Rayne for several months before she was murdered, and he had caused a number of quarrels between her and her husband. He admtited at the time of his arrest that she had refused to let him come to see her and she told one of the neighbors a day or two before she was murdered that Davis said she was going to drive him to the gallows.

Mrs. Rayne's body was found at 6 o'clock on the morning of November 8, by William Jones, who saw flames issuing from the house as he was passing on his way to work. She was lying in the kitchen in a pool of blood and died five minutes after being pulled from the burning house. Her skull had been crushed and practically all of her clothing burned from her body, It was claimed that Davis was seen leaving the house just a few minutes before the fire was discovered. Mr. Rayne was at his store at Powellsville at the time of the murder and had just started home when he learned of the crime.

Police Charge Strikers.

Paterson, N. J., March 1.—Police charged the parade of two thousand striking dye workers today and a free for all fight followed when the police used their clubs. The strikers finally broke and ran after a dozen of their number had been arrested and rushed to the station.

The strikers declare that they were putting into effect peaceful mass-picketing tactics when the police charged them. This Chief Brimson denied, saying that his men did not interfere until the strikers had declared their intention of raiding the mills where work is still in progress and driving the workers from the looms.

Today's demonstration was in charge of Carlo Thresca, one of the organizers of the I. W. W. He was not among those arrested and as soon as the police discovered this Chief Brimson swore out a warrant for his arrest charging inciting to riot. Captain Tracey and a squad of men were sent to find him and serve the warrant.

The feeling between the police and the strikers is again bitter and further trouble is looked for.

Seeks Divorce.

Staunton, V., March 11.—L. B. Boserman has filed suit for divorce from Mrs. Clara Boserman, held on charge of being an accessory in an attempt on her husband's life.

The case against Mrs. Boserman was to have been heard yesterday in police court, but was postponed until Wednesday at the request of the Commonwealth's attorney. The grand jury will meet today.

TRAIN KILLS BRAKEMAN.

Thought He Was Standing on the Siding, But Was on the Main Line.

Petersburg, Va., March 11.—About 8 o'clock Saturday night, a passenger train of the Seaboard Air Line struck and instantly killed Lewis Brazington, a freight brakesman. The freight train upon which Brazington worked had taken a siding, to allow the passenger train to pass. It is believed that the young man thought he was on the side track, but was standing on the main line instead. The passenger train was running at a good rate of speed when it struck him. His body was thrown a considerable distance. Other members of the train crew hurried to the spot where the body had been hurled, to find a shapeless mass of flesh and bones huddled beside the track. The accident occured a short distance south of where the Norfolk and Western belt line crosses the Seaboard Air Line, about three miles from this city.

PREPARING FOR HARD FIGHT.

"Wets" And "Drys" in Danville Will Have Real Test on April 15.

Danville, Va., March 11.—Although it has not yet been officially announced it is learned on good authority that the local option election will be called for April 15. The petitions circulated by the "dry" faction were presented to Judge Peatross, of the Corporation Court, last week, and the task of running over the signature and discovering whether they were signed by qualified voters was terminated on Saturday night.

There were more than three hundred names contained in the several petitions, more than the amount necessary to call an election. Several of the signatures, however, were found to be those of persons unqualified and were stricken off.

The calling of the election for April 15th leaves a little over two weeks for the local saloonkeepers to sell out their stock and close up, for their licenses are due to be renewed on the first of May.

Now that the date is known, both factions will settle down to an earnest endeavor to win a majority. Both "drys" and "wets" have been working quietly and systematically since the petitions were circulated, and will make every effort to poll the most votes in an election which promises to be an unusually warm one.
